

K-Love helps me to be a more careful and considerate driver. It also allows me to be a more positive parent when I pick up my 6 yr old daughter from school. I believe many other parents feel the same way. If K-Love was taken off the air, we would have more road rage and accidents due to poor attitudes. K-Love helps provide the ministry we all need, but maybe for some cannot get in a traditional setting (church).